INDEMNITY

Hostile environment and first aid training are physically demanding and have inherent hazards associated with them. Whilst Blue Dot takes all necessary precautions to try and ensure the safety of all participants, unfortunately accidents occur in consequence. Each participant should familiarise themselves with the hazards and try and minimise these as much as possible by complying with Blue Dot's risk management guidelines.

All personal belongings brought to the training centre remain the responsibility of the owner. Blue Dot accepts no responsibility or liability for any damages to or theft of clothing and equipment, or injuries sustained by third parties in the course of training, filming, interviewing or conducting any activities whilst on the grounds used by the company, or whilst travelling in vehicles used by Blue Dot, or whilst using the training equipment issued / demonstrated by the company.

Furthermore, the management accept no responsibility whatsoever for any loss or injury resulting from any persons' involvement in the above activities or for the way in which information from this course is used and for any consequences that result from its use. It is understood and agreed that individuals participate in above activities and interpret and utilise the information gained at their own risk.
